Baluji Shrivastav

A musical tribute to feminine deities by Classical Indian maestro Baluji Shrivastav

"..virtuoso multi-instrumentalist" - The Times

Wednesday 24 March 2010, 7.45pm
Purcell Room at Queen Elizabeth Hall
£12, conc. 50% off (limited availability)

Tapping into the sacred power of Classical Indian music Baluji celebrates Goddesses including Yemanja Queen of the Ocean (Africa and Brazil), Kwan Yin gentle & merciful (China & S.E. Asia), Amaterasu Sun Goddess of Japan, Erzulie Haitian Goddess of Love, Saraswati Goddess of creative thought and Lakshmi Goddess of fortune. The show is based on Baluji's forthcoming album Goddess (ARC Int.) a collection of original compositions with special contribution to tracks by Andy Williams (of the Doves).

Baluji will be performing on sitar, surbahar (bass sitar) and dilruba with tabla accompaniment by Nafees Irfan plus Pandit Dinesh on percussion.
